

البلاغ آل و آلا

www.facebook.com/titumir2016

সূচী

INDEX OF AL-BALAGH 1437 ISSUE-1

Editorial

2

Lessons in Quran: To be a True Believer the Heart Must be Free of Nifaq

3

Lessons in Hadith: The Price of Blood

4

Lessons in at-Tazkiyyah: Obedience and Sacrifice are the Stepping Stones to Success

6

Guidelines on Manhaj: Dispel Extremism & Unite Under the Flag of Tawheed

7

War Without Shariah is Nothing but Strife – Shaykh Asim Umar, Hafidhahullah

10

The One Who Taught the World Tawheed

15

Lessons to be Learned from the Dawah of Nuh (PBUH)

18

A conversation with a Disciple of Fariduddin Masud

19

Where to Operate when the Whole Body is Rotten?

20

The Reality of the Jihad in Sham: The New Trajectory of Jabhat an-Nusra, al-Qai'dah's Strategy for the Benefit of the Muslim Ummah

23

A Pen in One Hand and a Sword in the Other

26

When Will We Learn?

28

Verily in This are Signs for Those who Contemplate

29

History Speaks

30

The Ultimate Outcome of Oppression

31

From the Lives of the Salaf: Remembering the Scholar of the Scholars – Abdullah ibn Mubarak, Rahimahullah

32

Gazwaht ur-Rasul: The Battle of Badr

34

An Inverted Way of Thinking Regarding the Age of Marriage

39

The Reason Behind Widespread Divorce, Zina & Domestic Turmoil in Society Today

40

Sisters' Column: How I Came to Love the Niqab

41

Answering Doubts: Is Jihad of the Nafs the Greater Jihad?

44

Your Questions and Our Answers

45

امپراطوری

EDITORIAL

Do Not be Disheartened, for Verily, Victory Will be Yours

These days I try to steer clear of conversations in which politics come up. I don't feel the tiniest bit of interest about the organized criminal syndicate which we refer to as "politics". What is the point of speaking about specific issues, when the whole system is rotten to the core?

What is left of fundamental human rights in this system except for empty rhetoric? From the day labourer to the esteemed industrialist, nobody enjoys any security in this country anymore. On the one hand we see the unbelievable humanitarian disasters in places like Tajrin Fashions and Rana Plaza, and on the other hand we see the rulers being busy with celebrations of unchecked, unaccountable power. We see the anarchic flames of molotov cocktails engulfing the lives of the general masses, and we also see a never-ending spree of enforced disappearance, extra-judicial killing, detention and state-sponsored terrorism.

For what purpose? To what end?

Only to ensure the survival of the kleptocracy, the criminal demon-crazy nexus which is known as democracy.

Thus, while the anti-islamic bigots and hate-breeders are hailed as heroes by the rulers and the media, the Tawheed-loving muslims who came out in the streets to protest the defamation of their beloved Prophet ﷺ are humiliated and massacred.

The criminals siphon billions of dollars from the share market with ease and immersed in mirth, with no accountability whatsoever, while the devastated, burdened youth faced with unrelenting poverty and debt are forced to commit suicide. Domestic maids succumb to death after enduring barbaric torture at the hands of "distinguished" citizens, while the killers are showered with flowers and garlands. Our mothers and sisters are abused in broad daylight, yet the criminals roam free. Every moment a new tragedy is born. It is impossible to keep track of the disasters plaguing this nation. So which one of these can one speak about? Such is the state of the country.

And what about the Muslim Ummah? It seems no one even cares to inquire about the Muslims in Filisteen anymore, although the criminal Zionist Israel is still surrounded by Muslim countries. I think it was Ali Tantawi who once said - 'If muslims can't learn to resist Israel with weapons then they should learn how to die. You will see Israel be wiped off of the map with a flood of Muslim blood.'

Syria, Afghanistan, Iraq, Libya, China, Myanmar, India, Pakistan - no where have the Muslims been able to be liberated. I am not merely talking about the Western concept of "independence" or "self-determination", but I am talking about true liberation, which can only come through the victory of the deen. I am talking about making Islam victorious.

But the good news is a new wave, a reversal of the world order has started all over the world. A wave of Muslim youth is returning to Tawheed. A wave of the youth is returning to Islam. It is a return to the roots in order to bring back the glory and reclaim the honor, and to destroy the satanic civilization and establish the reign of the divine Shariah.

The Muslim youth have started to realize that they have to rise up and join the caravan. They have to join the resistance and the revolution. They have to conquer fear and walk on the same road on which the Salaf stepped upon. Only then true liberation and true victory will come. The Muslims have recognized the reality of the system of kufr imposed by the global kuffar. The magic of the magician has finally come undone.

The elders of the Brahmanism need to be cautious. With our backs to the wall, now is the time to fight back. It is now or never. The Muslims all over the world are witnessing the help of Allah granted to the Mujahideen. In a matter of a few hours, the Mujahideen in Kunduz were able to defeat the enemy and gain a hundred tanks and other weaponry as ghanimah. In Filisteen we see the beginning of the Third Intifada, and in Syria and Yemen we see the efforts to create the armies of the prophesized Mahdi, insha'Allah.

Oh youth! Tie your shroud around your head and join the golden caravan! The grown men who spend their times playing like kids in the fields of cricket are not your role-models. Rather, your role-models are men, firm in speech and in action. Men who lived with their head held high and with their AK aimed at the enemy. Your role-models are the lions of the Ummah, such as Umar and Usama - may Allah have mercy upon them.

Yes your role-model are the likes of the reviving Imam, the hero of the afflicted Ummah, Shaykh Usama bin Ladin, who boldly stated -

I swear by Allah who has raised the heavens without any pillars. America and those living in America will not even dream of peace until we live it in Filisteen, and until all the kufr armies are expelled from the land of Muhammad ﷺ.